There are no legal or disciplinary events material to the evaluation of Mr. Eid.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Mr. Eid is a registered representative of Saxony Securities, Inc., member FINRA/SIPC, and licensed insurance agent/broker. He may offer products and receive normal and customary commissions as a result of these transactions. A conflict of interest may arise as these commissionable securities sales may create an incentive to recommend products based on the compensation earned. In order to mitigate this potential conflict of interest, Mr. Eid will recommend products based solely on the client's best interests.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

¹ Note: Our firm may, under certain circumstances, rebut the presumption that a disciplinary event is material. If an event is immaterial, we are not required to disclose it. When we review a legal or disciplinary event involving the advisor to determine whether it is appropriate to rebut the presumption of materiality, we consider all of the following factors: (1) the proximity of advisor to the advisory function; (2) the nature of the infraction that led to the disciplinary event; (3) the severity of the disciplinary sanction; and (4) the time elapsed since the date of the disciplinary event. If we conclude that the materiality presumption has been overcome, we prepare and maintain a file memorandum of our determination in our records. We follow SEC rule 204-2(a)(14)(iii) and similar state rules.

Mr. Eid does not receive any other economic benefit for providing advisory services in addition to advisory fees.
